BOYS 1A SECTIONAL AT ORION

ORION – Competing on its home track at Charger Field for the final time this spring, the Orion boys' track and field squad had its sights set as high as possible. Hoping to capture a Class 1A sectional team championship on a gray and windswept Friday evening, the Chargers got off to a strong start as senior Logan Lee swept both the shot put and discus title and classmate Trent Scharpman scored a silver medal in the pole vault. With Lee and another Orion senior, Ryan Wegerer, each pocketing two sectional gold medals, the Chargers gave their hometown fans a fitting sendoff as they racked up 96 points to outdistance runner-up Spring Valley Hall (78 points) for the team crown.

“This week, the No. 1 goal was qualifying for state; the No. 2 goal was to get as many points as I can for the team,” said Lee, who threw 52 feet, 2 inches to strike gold in the shot put, then followed up with a heave of 157-6 to take the discus title. “Right now, this is a team sport. We've done well with our past track teams, but we've had a lot more success this year because of our numbers. We've had a lot of people stepping up and putting the work in at practice, and it's shown.”

Scharpman cleared 10-9 in the pole vault, finishing four inches behind first-place finisher Kale Barnett of Bureau Valley. Hitting the track, he ran the lead-off leg for the Chargers' first-place 4x800 relay, combining with Andrew Wampler, Camden Sellers and Wegerer to post a winning time of 8:47.83. “All of the fans here, and a lot of our classmates – we get great support from the class of 2019 – gives us a bit of a competitive edge,” said Scharpman. “It wasn't perfect tonight; a little less wind would've been great.”

Wegerer brought home a title of his own, winning the 800 in 2:03.99. Bolstering Orion in terms of team points were runner-up finishes by Sellers in the 400 (55.47) and Caleb Spranger in the 300 intermediate hurdles (44.30). Spranger also teamed with Alec Noyd, Ryan Fowler and Hunter Bambauer for a runner-up 4x200 relay clocking of 1:36.82, and his third-place jump of 42 feet even in the triple jump also punched his ticket to Charleston in that event. He also teamed with Fowler, Sellers and Wegerer for a second-place time of 3:38.22 in the 4x400 relay. “This first stretch was pretty grueling on the first lap,” Wegerer said in reference to the windy conditions. “I knew I needed to keep enough for the final sprint. He (runner-up Thomas Stamberger of Amboy, who posted a 2:04.21 clocking) really pushed me in that last lap. It was a good race.”

Distance sweep for Galva's Foley: After winning the 3200 with a time of 10:03.88, Galva senior standout Caelin Foley just edged Ridgewood's Jordan Francis to complete a sweep of the distance events by winning the 1600 in 4:46.73. Francis was right behind with a 4:46.73 clocking. “I was looking to win both,” said Foley, who will be joined at state by teammate and reigning 1A state triple jump champion Peyton Sopiars, who cleared 43-10 to take sectional gold.

A-W's Samuels golden in the long jump: Annawan-Wethersfield junior Julian Samuels led a trio of state-qualifying Titans by clearing 22-2 to win the long jump. In the same event, teammate Kaynen Bond took third and advanced by clearing 20-10 $\frac{3}{4}$. In the triple jump, Ben Smith (fourth place) leaped 41-6 $\frac{1}{4}$ to advance. “The wind definitely helped me, along with my teammates and the other competition,” said Samuels, who also qualified in the 100 with a fourth-place clocking of 11.25 seconds. “Competition is contagious. It was a good atmosphere to jump in.”
